A BLUE STAR TURNS TO GOLD

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY
FRED A. MURPHY
of
MANN & MARR
HISTORICAL WAR MUSIC

ARRANGED
BY ASA N. SMITH

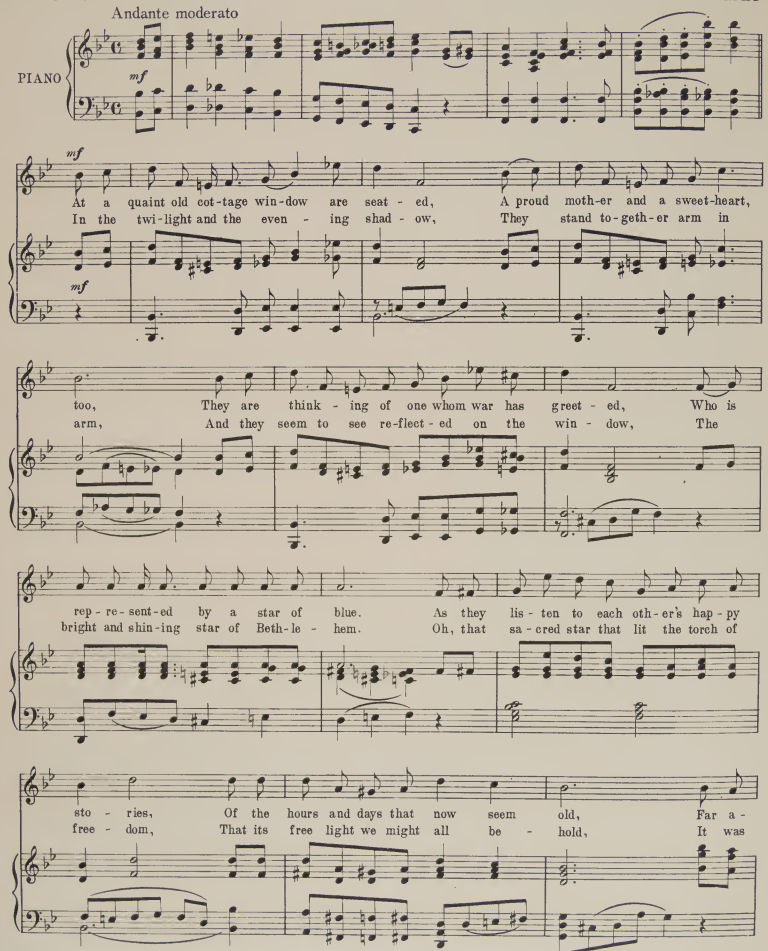
A Blue Star Turns To Gold

Arranged by ASA N. SMITH

Words and Music by
FRED. A. MURPHY

Andante moderato



PIANO
mf
At a quaint old cot-tage win-dow are seat - ed, A proud moth-er and a sweet-heart, In the twi-light and the even - ing shad - ow, They stand to-geth-er arm in too, They are think - ing of one whom war has greet - ed, Who is arm, And they seem to see re-flect - ed on the win - dow, The rep - re - sent-ed by a star of blue. As they lis - ten to each oth-er's hap - py bright and shin-ing star of Beth-le - hem. Oh, that sa - cred star that lit the torch of sto - ries, Of the hours and days that now seem old, Far a - free - dom, That its free light we might all be - hold, It was

Copyright 1918 by Fred. A. Murphy

p poco rit.
way a - mid the bat - tle's glo - ry, A blue star turns to gold.
that its flame might blaze on vic - t'ry, A blue star turned to gold.
p poco rit.
CHORUS
mf a tempo
Oh, a star in the win-dow is shin - ing, For one on a dis - tant shore, Whom the
mf a tempo
dove of peace is guid - ing, To a land that's free from war; 'Twas for f love of home and lib - er - ty, And the flag we dear - ly all en - fold, And to f rit. - - -
a tempo
p con sentimento
prove when right, we're not too proud to fight, That a blue star turned to gold.
con sentimento
rit. - - -
a tempo
p